Help Improve Access To and From Washington, D.C. NOW

Dear (insert name here),

As new legislation has been introduced in Congress. I write to you to urge you to help improve access to the today's air travel ecosystem in the nation's capital.

You have the opportunity to unlock major benefits, such as improving access to the Washington, D.C. area, reducing airline ticket prices, improving passenger productivity, creating new jobs, generating economic benefits and reducing carbon emissions.

As a supporter of Capital Access Alliance, I am ready to help make access to and from the Washington, D.C. region easier and more affordable. That's why I'm calling on you to support additional direct flights to and from DCA through H.R. 3185, the Direct Capital Access Act.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Mr. Ricardo Sandoval
